Notes from Nikki

Dear Senior Club Members,

In January we saw some mighty cold weather and we were sad that we couldn't see you all as much as we would like. Warmer days are ahead now, and we will soon be seeing new blooms of Spring.

In February we started with a trip to the Rialto Square Theatre, which was simply stunning. Walking around this beautiful theatre with its ornate architecture from 1926 was so nice. The pipe organ concert was amazing on the world-renowned Barton Grande Theatre Pipe Organ.

Valentine's Bingo is sponsored by our friends at Comfort Keepers, Terri will provide us with Gift cards for some of our top prizes and a yummy dessert.

Don't miss out on our Mardi Gras Celebration, it's going to be a great time with entertainment from Ann Stewart and Banjo Buddies Trio

New this Spring - Seniors Spring Break! So much fun planned with day trips and programs all week long. 70's themed disco party is coming in April, instead of the Polish Polka party. It's always fun trying something new, so get your bell bottoms out from the back of the closet, and come join the fun.

For April Bingo I am happy to share many of my trinkets from the UK as we create a Whimsy Tearoom experience, serving up a tiered tray lunch, before enjoying bingo. Be sure to wear your big hats and get your pinkies up. Space is limited

Warm regards,

Nikki
